

Project overview

Our solution is a cloud-based patients and doctors record management system.

This innovative system leverages cloud computing technology, enabling healthcare providers to access patient records in real-time from any location with internet access. Advanced security features ensure that patient data remains protected from unauthorized access and breaches.

Ultimately, this project aims to design and implement a reliable cloud-based solution that enhances the quality of care, improves patient outcomes, and reduces costs within the healthcare industry.

